UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

v.

Brijesh Goel,

Defendant.

22 Cr. 396 (PKC)

Attorney-Client Privilege Waiver (Informed Consent)

To: Brijesh Goel

You have made a motion under Section 2255 of Title 28, United States Code, to have your conviction and sentence set aside on the ground that you received ineffective assistance from your former lawyer, Adam C. Ford, Esq. (referred to in this form as your “former counsel”). The Court has reviewed your papers and determined that it needs to have a sworn testimonial statement from former counsel to evaluate your motion.

By making this motion, you have waived the attorney-client privilege you had with your former counsel to the extent relevant to determining your claim. This means that if you wish to press your claim of ineffective assistance, you cannot keep the communications between yourself and your former counsel a secret—you must allow them to be disclosed to the Government and to the Court pursuant to Court order. The Court has already issued an Order (copy attached) ordering your former counsel to give such testimony, in the form of an affidavit. This Informed Consent form is designed to ensure that you fully understand and agree to this.

Specifically, if you wish to proceed with your motion to set aside your conviction and sentence on the basis that you received ineffective assistance of counsel, you must sign this statement and return it to the Court. The form constitutes your authorization to your former counsel to disclose confidential communications (1) only in response to a Court order and (2) only to the extent necessary to shed light on the allegations of ineffective assistance of counsel that are raised by your motion.

You should know that if you sign this authorization, you run the risk that your former counsel will contradict your statements about his or her representation of you. However, you should also know that the Court will deny your motion if you do not authorize your former counsel to give an affidavit in response to the Court’s attached Order.

You must return this form, signed by you and notarized, within sixty (60) days from the date of the Court’s Order directing your former counsel to give testimony. If the Court does not receive this form, signed by you and notarized, within that time, the Court will automatically deny your motion.

NOTARIZED AUTHORIZATION

I have read the Court's Order dated _____ and this document headed Attorney-Client Privilege Waiver (Informed Consent). I hereby authorize my former counsel, Adam C. Ford, Esq., to comply with the Court's Order by giving testimony, in the form ordered by the Court, relating to my motion to set aside my conviction and sentence on the ground of ineffective assistance of counsel. This authorization allows my former counsel to testify only pursuant to Court order, and only to the extent necessary to shed light on the allegations of ineffective assistance of counsel that are raised by my motion.
